About the Healing Art Exhibit

This exhibit is an annual, regional show open to artists within a 100 mile radius of Oxford, Ohio, or artists who have a personal connection with the hospital.

For this exhibit, artists are encouraged to explore the concept of art as a healing instrument. McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital embraces the importance of the healing power of the arts.

Work will be judged on originality, theme, design, concept, technique, and appropriateness to the space and facility.

The Hospital reserves the right to disqualify any work found to be significantly different from the JPEG submitted for judging, or that is not properly framed and ready to hang.

Art will be displayed with a short description of intent, content, and/or inspiration. Sale price and contact information should also be included. Sales will be exclusively between the artist and the buyer. Selected artists will agree to have their work on display for one year.

Up to seven (7) pieces selected for a purchase award will become property of the McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital. Ten percent (10%) of a purchase award will be retained for the Hospital Trust.

General Terms

- Entrants must be at least 18 years old, reside within 100 miles of Oxford, or have a personal connection with the hospital.
- Each entrant may submit up to three pieces of art.
- A non-refundable fee of $15 per artwork must be submitted at the time of entry.
- All 2D fine art media are accepted, including mixed media, glass, fabric, metal or wood suitable for wall hanging.
- All entries must be for sale.
- Entries based on photos must be from artist's original photo.
- Entries must be the work of the entering artist.
- Size: A variety of sizes will be selected in consideration of display space available. The maximum width being 52".
- No computer generated art will be accepted.
- To be considered for a purchase award, a photograph must be a single edition.
- Selected pieces will be delivered with the aforementioned description and contact information.

Jurors - Charlene George & Hannah Beck

After graduating from Ball State University with a Bachelor's and Master's in Art, Charlene taught within the public school system, but later focused her attention on teaching workshops, private lessons, and becoming an established professional artist. Charlene's works have won numerous awards and are also represented in several permanent collections.

Hannah is a pastel artist, living in Cincinnati. Expressing life experiences and making connections with the viewer through dramatic landscape composition are the motivations that drive Hannah's art. She has studied with internationally renowned pastel artists and has received various awards and acknowledgements.

The "Healing Art" project at the McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital was conceived as a way to partner with the community in fostering the healing process. Displaying original art not only adds beauty to the environment, but it also brings comfort to and interest for those using the facility. By participating in this project, artists join the medical community to enhance the healing environment of the hospital for patients and visitors.
